

BOARD BRIEFS

Todd Terrill, Superintendent

November 11, 2015

Celebrations

- Rae Woolpy introduced Torrie Mayberry, a 12th grade student at Richmond High School and Tyler Hamm, owner of Mancinos. Tyler described a recent situation where a purse was stolen from the restaurant while Torrie was working. Torrie displayed excellent citizenship and quick thinking and was able to recover the stolen purse.
- Corey Hartley, Director of Elementary Education, provided information regarding a writing initiative taking place at Fairview Elementary. Pam Barr, Fairview Elementary Principal, further described that initiative and the benefits it has on students.

Work Session– Technology

Chuck Reynolds began the conversation regarding technology and our students. He provided the historical perspective and what has been done thus far inside RCS. Corey Hartley, Rob Tidrow, Rod Landess, and Mike Shunneson also spoke to the types of learners, digital transformation, e-rate, learning management systems, and next steps. More information will come to the next board meeting.

Bell Ringer

For tonight's bell ringer, Mr. Terrill celebrated and described the Veteran's Day activities throughout the district. He thanked Veterans for their sacrifice and recognized those present at the board meeting.
