Richmond Names Matthew Jenkins Head Boys Soccer Coach

RICHMOND, April 11, 2018 – Richmond High School is pleased to announce the hiring of Matthew Jenkins as the head varsity boys soccer coach. Coach Jenkins comes to RHS with 7 years of soccer experience. Coach Jenkins is excited for the opportunity and will look to bring discipline and tactical awareness in to the already talented Richmond High School program.

“My philosophy is to recruit players who not only play well, but have good character,” stated Coach Jenkins. “I want players who want to compete and who are willing to learn.”

Coach Jenkins is 1995 alum of Richmond High School. He has worked for Richmond Community Schools since 2012.
