

BOARD BRIEFS

Todd Terrill, Superintendent

April 11, 2018

Work Session

Bill Payne, Fanning Howey, presented an overview and summary of the Master Plan Report that began in March 2017. Members of the board discussed the findings of the report while asking Mr. Payne questions to help with their understanding of next steps. Mr. Terrill will bring to the next board meeting a recommendation of where to begin to be ready for the start of school in August 2018.

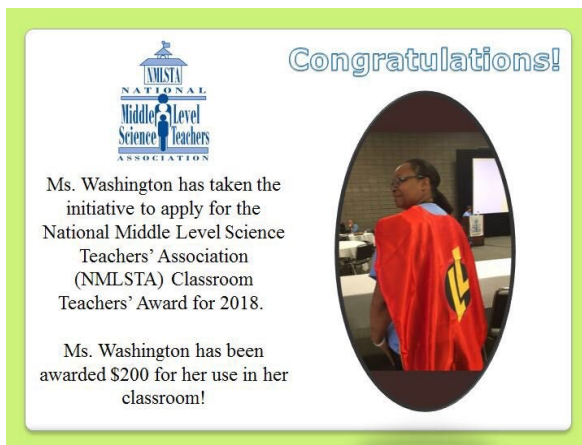

Board Reports/Old Business

Legislative

Mr. Terrill gave the board an update on the current legislative issues from the IUSA meeting. Mr. Terrill has planned a meeting with Senator Raatz and the surrounding superintendents this Friday to discuss in detail the issues that will have an impact on public schools.

Policies

The board members discussed how to review/update policies. Suzanne will send a process to the board for their review.

Adjournment/Bell Ringer

- Jennifer O'Brien completed her HR specialist certification with IASBO.
- Tiauna Washington, Hibberd, was selected as the 2018 Indiana State Teachers Association Minority Teacher of the Year.
- Every senior that participated in the HOSA State Conference qualified for Nationals.
- Dylan Selby was elected as president elect of the Indiana HOSA chapter.
- RCS hosted the IASBO Regional meeting at the high school on Tuesday, April 10th. Approximately 100 people attended including superintendents, former legislators, business and grant personnel, and software vendors. The Statewide meeting was presented by the IAPSS/IASBO - free budget workshops were offered to everyone in the state. Thank you to the staff at the Tiernan Center, Civic Hall, and the students and staff at Richmond High School. This was a great opportunity to show off what Richmond Community Schools has to offer.
