Board Policy Review

Over the past year, Julie Slavens, ISBA Staff Attorney, has been reviewing the RCS policies. She recently returned the report of the review. The review includes policies that are required by law, policies that can be updated/changed/consolidated and some that can be deleted. Dixie Robinson reminded board members of the importance of school board policies. Policies will be divided up among board members for their review of Ms. Slavens' recommendations. Board members will each have four sections to review and will bring back to the June work session.

Adjournment/Bell Ringer

The Twentieth Annual Celebration of Excellence was held on Tuesday, May 9th at Civic Hall. Jennifer O'Brien and her staff did a great job organizing the event. Teachers, support staff and this year's retirees were recognized. This is National Teacher Week but we look at it as National Educator Week. Everyone that works for our school system touches the lives of the students and we celebrate and thank them for what they do for our students every day.
