Adjournment/Bell Ringer

Mr. Terrill would like to celebrate the educational leadership and professional development at Richmond Community Schools. The culture shift that has been occurring over the past couple years in RCS has been very beneficial for our students. Teachers, administrators and board members have been learning and sharing new information with each other.

Working together for our students has been instrumental in our continued success.

Board Reports/Old Business

Board members Aaron Stevens, Brad Walton and Deborah Moore attended the ISBA Fall Conference on October 2nd and 3rd. The conference provided very informative workshops, opportunities to meet people from other school districts and learn what has worked and not worked for their corporations.

Overall, this was a very good conference with many learning opportunities.

ISBA Regional Meeting will be Wednesday, October 18, 2017 at Willie and Reds. Dixie, Aaron, Brad and Debbie will attend.
