RCS Teachers kickoff school year with #LovePublicEducation initiative

RICHMOND, IN August 14, 2017 – Richmond Community Schools teachers and staff jumped on the bang wagon to show their support for I Love Public Education campaign. The campaign began when RCS Superintendent Todd Terrill became award of the School Superintendents Association national campaign to support public education.

RCS teachers and staff were invited to show their pride and love for public school and to post on social media using the hashtag #LovePublicEducation.
