March 21, 2019 RICHMOND, INDIANA - On Wednesday, March 20, 2019, Mackenzie Cook, a senior at Richmond High School, signed a Letter of Intent to play tennis at IU East. Mackenzie will be majoring in Nursing. Mackenzie is a three sport RHS athlete. She has played varsity for Girls Soccer, Swimming and Tennis. In soccer, Mackenzie earned ISCA Academic All-State, ISCGA Academic All-State, ISCA Top Team Players, and All North Central Conference.

RHS Tennis Coach Randy Hollingsworth said, "Thankfully she is going to stay closer to home so we can still watch her and see her compete at the next level," says RHS tennis coach Randy Hollingsworth.

Cook is excited about what's to come. "Richmond High School has helped me get ready for college," she said. "I'm going to miss the atmosphere, the coaches and the students at Richmond High School. I'm looking forward to playing for the IU East Red Wolves and bringing what I have there."

Cook signed the letter in front of her parents, coaches, teammates at Richmond High School's Tiernan Center. Mackenzie is the eldest daughter of Kevin and Kim Cook of Richmond.
