

Richmond Community Schools

300 Hub Etchison Parkway
Richmond, IN 47374
weRrichmond.com

Sarah Lynch Named as New Principal of Community Youth Services

RICHMOND, April 10, 2019 – The Richmond Community Schools Board of Trustees approved Sarah Lynch as the new principal at Community Youth Services for the 2019-2020 school year.

Sarah has 14 years of experience in education. Sarah's current role is district Educational Diagnostician. She has worked as an instructional coach and math teacher at Dennis Intermediate School. She has also served as the assistant to the principal for past few years at summer school. Prior to working at RCS, Sarah taught math and alternative education in Union County, math at Ivy Tech, and worked as a second deputy auditor for Union County. Sarah is very involved in the district where she has taken advantage of the various professional development opportunities offered and has also served on several committees from high ability testing to textbook adoption. Sarah holds a bachelor's degree from Indiana University East and a master's degree from Ball State University. She has professional educator's licenses for Mathematics (grades 5-12) and Building Level Administrator for all grades.

Sarah Lynch
2019-2020 Principal
Community Youth Services

"Mrs. Lynch has demonstrated strong leadership and academic success within Richmond Community Schools. We're excited for her to start this new chapter and join our RCS administrative team," said Superintendent Todd Terrill.

She is married to her husband Eric and has 2 sons. Dillon is in his third year of an electrical apprenticeship program. Owen is a sophomore at Ball State University.

###

Press Contact

Bridget Hazelbaker, Communication Coordinator, (765) 973-3329, bhazelbaker@rcs.k12.in.us