RCS Superintendent Todd Terrill announces next Principal for Vaile Elementary School

RICHMOND, May 23, 2018 – RCS Superintendent Todd Terrill has announced Tierney Stevenson as the new principal for Vaile Elementary School for the 2018-19 school year. Mrs. Stevenson comes to Richmond Community Schools with a wealth of experience in teaching, leading, and evaluating curriculum and instruction. Currently Mrs. Stevenson is a district elementary instructional coach for the Indianapolis Public Schools. In this role, she serves as an instructional leader for 13 elementary schools including a high ability magnet school. Prior to this position with IPS, Mrs. Stevenson worked for the Beech Grove City Schools where she was a teacher, a TAP mentor teacher, and an Assistant Principal for Curriculum and Instruction. Through these experiences, Mrs. Stevenson gained valuable and extensive training in teacher evaluations, data analysis, the 8-Step Process, NWEA, DIBELS, and school-wide goal setting, as well as creating and leading professional development for staff members.

Mrs. Stevenson earned her bachelor's degree from Franklin College and her Master's in Educational Administration from Ball State University. Mrs. Stevenson has served on Beech Grove City Schools' Instructional Leadership Team, Literacy and Writing committee, PBS – positive behavior support team, academic intervention team and technology in the classroom.

Mr. Todd Terrill, RCS Superintendent stated, “we are fortunate to be adding Mrs. Stevenson to our administrative team. Her vision for school culture and her ability to relate to kids are two things that really stand out about her. She will serve Vaile Elementary School and our students well.”

Mrs. Stevenson was approved by the RCS board May 23 and will begin at Vaile Elementary School in July 2018.
